Joyner

The first land grants to anyone of the name in Virginia, were granted to a Raphael Joyner in James City, County, however so far no connection has been indicated with the Isle of Wight family of the name.

The first time the name is mentioned in the Isle of Wight records is when, Herman Joyner, applies for a divorce from his wife Sarah, who had gone to N. C. with Capt. William Woolard.

Dated. Dec. 6, 1673.

Wit. William Sherwood.

N. & D. Bk. 2, p. 294.

I have been unable to find his name anywhere else in the Isle of Wight records. I find one reference to him in the Surry records, when he sues Joseph Antrobus. 1672.

Surry O. Bk. 1671-90, p. 28.

The name Herman never appears in the Joyner line which we trace from Thomas Joyner, so it is not known whether he was the ancestor of the family or not.

Ann Lane, aged 50 years, did hear Thomas Joyner, Sr., say that what little he had he left to his son John Joyner.

Also proved by Elizabeth Cook, age 47, Thomas Lucas, age 34 and Theophilus Joyner age 35. 1695.

That Lewis Joyner's wife was named Martha may be proven by her relinquishment of her dower rights in a sale of property in 1752. Southampton deed Bk. 1, p. 405. Her identity is unknown.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks for your letter, just received. I am enclosing a money order for $5.00
as a starter. I am ⁱⁿ no great hurry to obtain the data I asked you to get for me. I am merely curious to know who my forebears
were and where and when they were born and died. I would also like to know from what county
in England they came.

Israel (who may or may not have been Giles father) seems to have married twice. Mrs. Davis thought that his wife, Sarah Johnson, was my great-great great grandmother. She was his second (?) wife and supposedly the daughter of Giles Johnson.

If she was my ancestress then
she named her son after her father.

Israel Joyner's will, Book 3,
Page 185, Southampton county records, names Giles as one of his sons. Of course, it could be another person of the same name
as my great-great grandfather.

The will of William Joyner,
Isle of Wight county, Page 57, lists an Israel as one of his sons. You are in a better position to judge whether these people
are my ancestors than I am.

Please don't go to too much trouble or expense. I want
only a brief sketch.

Best wishes, Sincerely,
E. B. Joyner.

Smithfield, Va.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I have just received a letter from Mr. R. A. Edwards of your city in which he advises that you might be willing to do a little genealogical work for me.

I would like to know what you would charge to trace my line back to the first settler in Virginia. I am interested mainly in the male line, the dates and places of their births and deaths. Of course, where the names of their wives can be easily ascertained, with the dates of marriage and dates and places of birth and death it would be nice to have that data also but I would not care to have too much time taken up with those details. I believe that several of my ancestors married more than once. I am over 65 now and am a confirmed bachelor. That doesn't mean, however, that I do not like the opposite sex.

The last ancestor I am certain about is Giles Joyner (about 1766 to 1802) who married Milly Simmons March 9th. 1786 and Elizabeth Mary Ann Cheatham April 12th. 1792. The latter was my great-great grandmother.

I do not know how you would find out the dates of birth and death of these people unless there are grave stones still intact which would yield this information but it may be that you have recourse to other sources.

Mrs. C. E. Davis, who did some research for me several years ago, thought that Israel was Giles father as the latter was mentioned in his will. Who Israel's father was I do not know but according to DAR records in Washington there is a will of one William Joyner who mentions a son Israel. The former died May 21st. 1698. This data is taken from Isle of Wight County Wills and Administrations, Page 57.

This William Joyner must have been among the first settlers in your State as the Virginia Historical Society advises that there were no persons of that name in the Old Dominion prior to 1695. I think, however, that this is a mistake.

At any rate there would be only two, or at most, three, ancestors before Giles still unaccounted for.

I had the census records for 1790, 1800 and 1810 searched for data on Giles and Israel but learned nothing from them. The records covering Isle of Wight and Southampton counties for 1790 were for some reason entirely missing. My people, I believe, settled in what is now Southampton county.

I shall be very glad to hear from you whenever you find it convenient to write.

With best wishes,
Sincerely Yours,

George B. Foyner.

Dear Mr. Joyner:

I trust you do not feel that I have just disappeared with your ~~5:00~~ ^{5:00}. I have not been able to get to Southampton which is sixty miles from here and I cannot tell from here whether your line is correct as it now looks from my notes. The Giler I have marked * I think went to N.C. for there is one listed in Northampton County in 1790 in N.C. with a family of six. I have a will of an Abraham of Northampton Co. N.C. dated 1792 with a son Giler. He can hardly have been the same one. The abstract I have, ^{of} Israel's will, indicates he had married a widow, by leaving her what she owned before her marriage. I have a note showing that Israel signed a deed with a wife Isabella & another note giving a Vick with a daughter Isabella. I cannot make a clear statement that your line is like I have worked it out, until I can check the Southampton records.

Dear Mr. Tjerner:

I trust you do not feel that I have just disappeared with your ~~5.10~~ ^{5.10}. I have not been able to get to Southampton which is sixty miles from here and I cannot tell from here whether your line is correct as it now looks from my notes. The Giler I have marked * I think went to N.C. for there is one listed in Northampton County in 1790 in N.C. with a family of six. I have a will of an Abraham of Northampton Co. N.C. dated 1792 with a son Giler. He can hardly have been the same one. The abstract I have, ^{of} Israel's will, indicates he had married a widow, by leaving her what she owned before her marriage. I have a note showing that Israel signed a deed with a wife Isabella & another note giving a lick with a daughter Isabella. I cannot make a clear statement that your line is like I have worked it out, until I can check the Southampton records.

I have a very ill husband and little help and since So. is such a distance, I just have not been able to get up there. I have to go back before I can get out

my vol II of the County.

I have painted a Tryner coat-of-arms
for two members of the D. of W family, but since the connection has never been proven across the ocean, there is no way of saying it is the right one or rather the one to which the family is entitled, although it is an unusually pretty one.

So far I have found no reason for saying that Raphael Tryner was the father ~~ancestor~~ of the Thomas and Herman found early in the Isle of Wight records
except that he is of the proper generation and in the locality. Too bad when the family carried the distinctive names of Bredgman & Theophilus, that some one should not have had a Raphael.

As soon as I can get to Cowland
and do a little checking I will let you know if my suppositions stand up.

My apologies for being slow.

Sincerely,

Blanche G. Chapman

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I am enclosing a letter received from your mother shortly before her death (which I would thank you to return at your convenience). She was doing some research work for me at the time but was not, I believe, quite sure as to which of the two wives of Israel (Isabel Vick or Sarah Johnson) was my ancestress. Personally, I am of the opinion that whichever one of these women who was the mother of Giles was my ancestress. Do you know if your mother ever got back to Southampton to check on this matter?

Your mother wrote me that there was no way of proving who the first immigrants of the Joyner line was or when he arrived in this country and therefore my ancestry could not be traced back across the ocean.

Mrs. Charles E. Davis, who also did some research for me before her death, and before I contacted your mother, seemed to be under the impression that three brothers composed the original Joyner settlement and that one of them was my ancestor. However, I could never get anything definite.

If you are busy, take your time about answering this and if there is any charge connected with your reply please advise me as to amount and I will remit to cover same.

With best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

E. B. Joyner
